ABRAHAM JONES HOUSE

On the west side of Route 621 about 2/10 mile north of the junction of Routes 626 and 621.

In 1798 Abraham Jones married Nancy Ward. In 1804 his father, Benjamin (Whalebone) Jones, willed to his oldest son Abraham, "a certain tract of land whereon he now lives containing by estimation two hundred acres . . ."

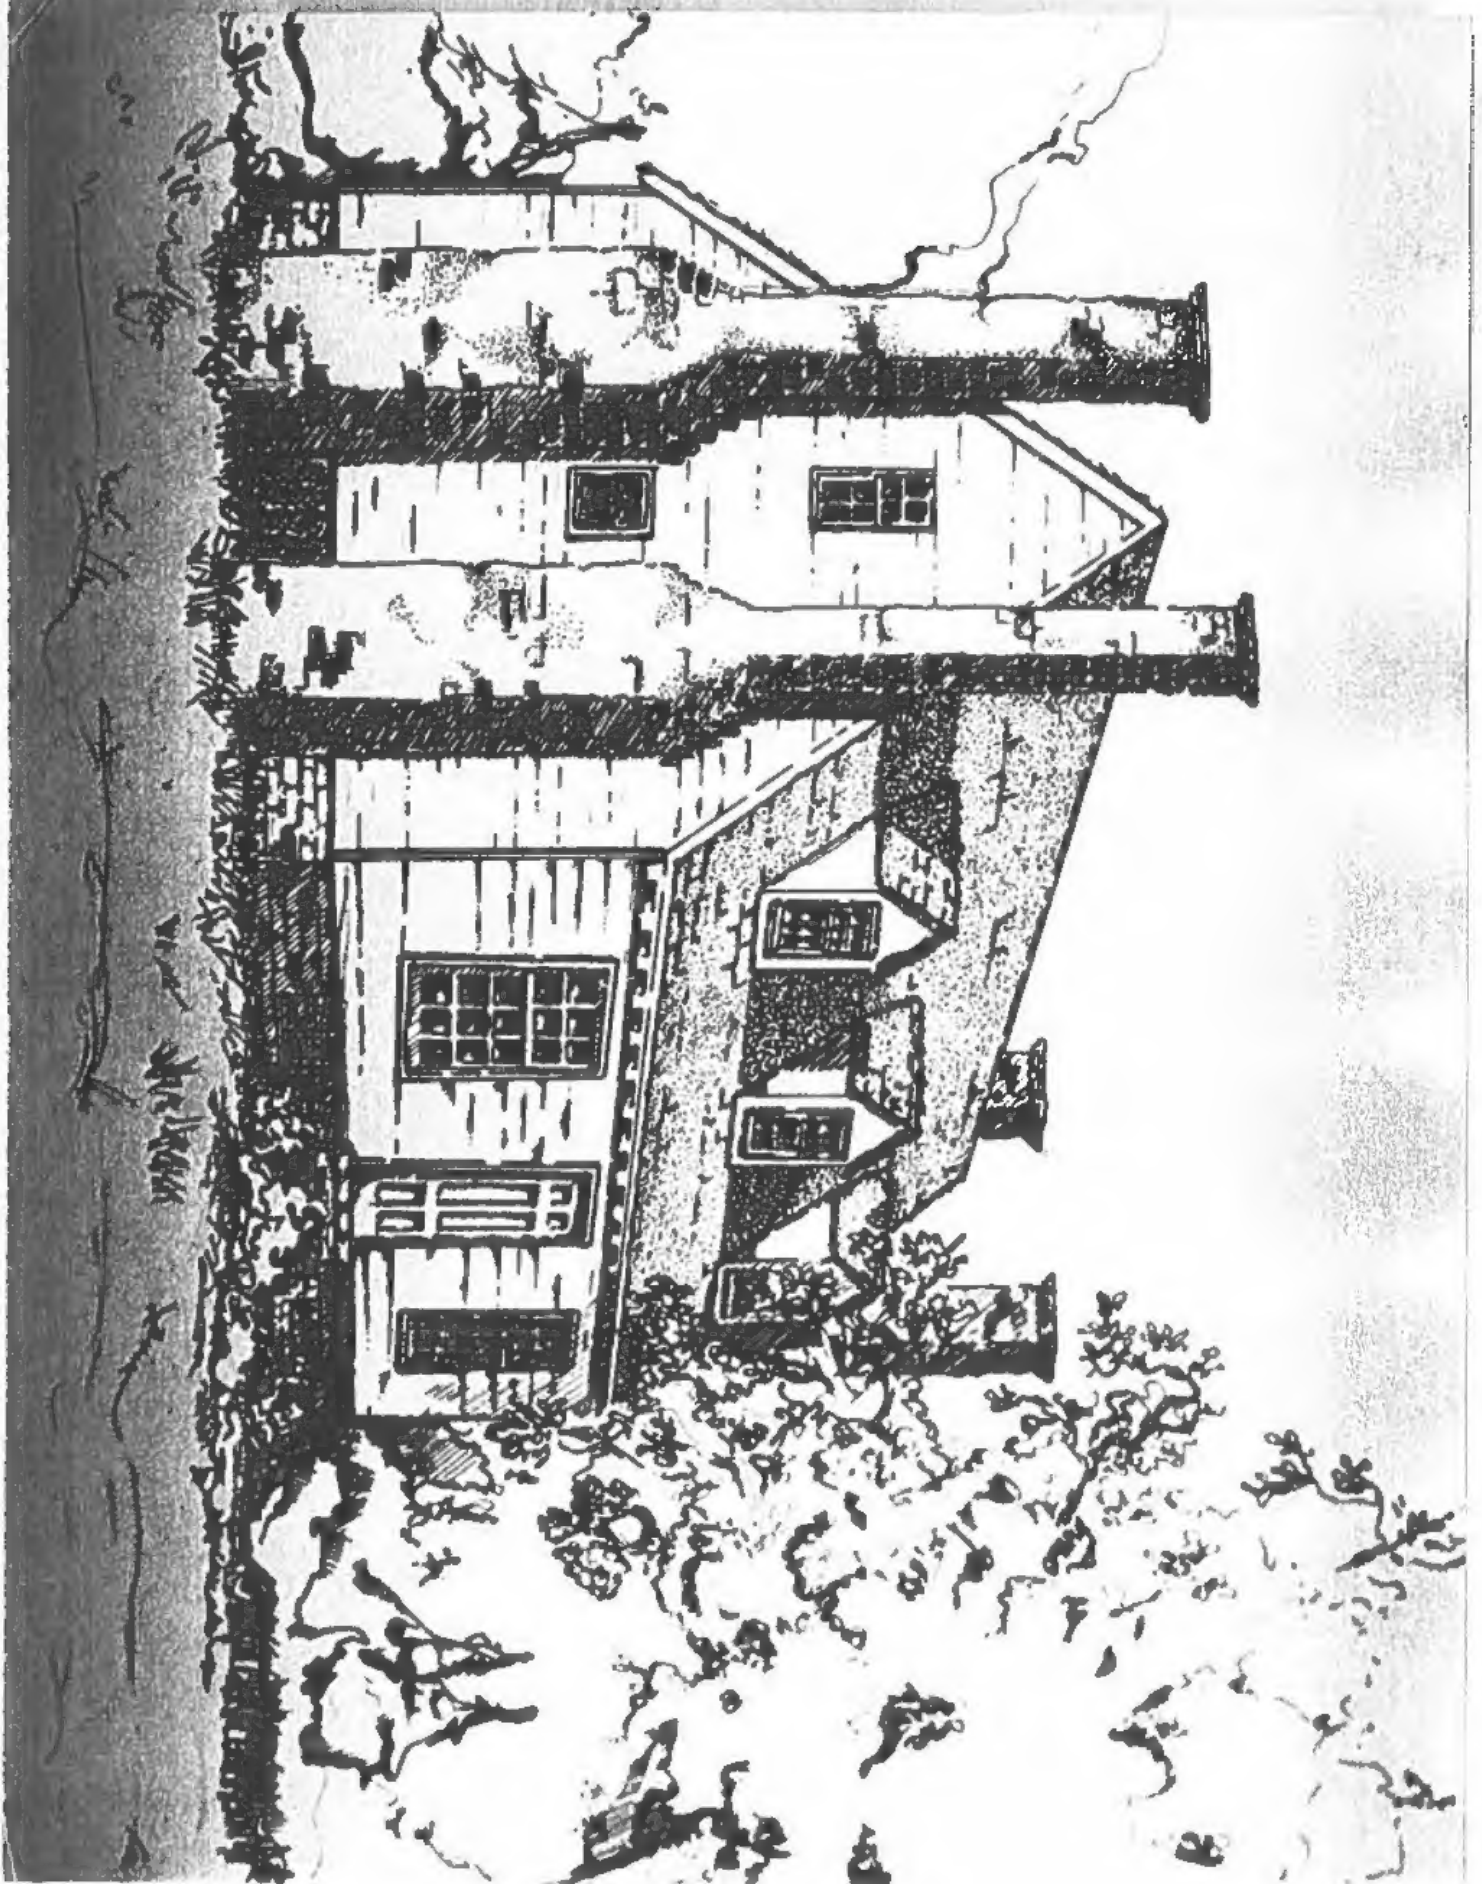

The old house on this place was probably built by Abraham Jones between 1798 and 1804, but there is structural evidence that part of it was earlier—the usual one room and loft.

Abraham Jones died in 1840 and left a sizable estate, also three sons and five daughters, who have many descendants in Isle of Wight County. To son, Nathan, he bequeathed the "land and plantation whereon I now live." Nathan sold this to his brother, Wilson Jones. It remained in the Wilson Jones family until the 1880's, then passed into the possession of Charlotte M.C. Delk Gale, who sold it to her son, W. H. Gale, in 1909. Mr. Gale sold it to Dr. J. H. Crouch in 1921, and people still speak of it as the "Dr. Crouch Place."

In 1947 Thomas H. Delk bought the place and passed it on to his son, Alfred Delk. In 1976 Nancy Delk Hall, daughter of Alfred Delk, sold 1.332 acres, including the old house, to Richard B. and Patricia S. Norman of Virginia Beach. The Normans are now painstakingly restoring the old house.

The rectangular one-and-a-half-story frame house with a cellar has two large brick chimneys at each end, six dormers, three on the front and three on the back, two hand-carved, high mantels. Mr. Norman is changing the interior back to the original floor plan. Two old dependencies are in the yard and the Jones and Dashiell cemetery is in the woods close by.

JONES FAMILY HISTORIC SITES

1. Site of ROUND OAK PLANTATION-Intersection of 621 (Burwell's Bay Road) and 626 (Mill Swamp Road)

According to early records, this tract of land was purchased by Rev. Richard Jones in 1755. Originally 100 acres, Richard left it to his son, Benjamin in his 1762 will. Benjamin married Mary Gray of Surry County and they raised 10 children here, five daughters, Betsy J. Edwards, Rebekah J. Stringfield, Sylvia J. Thomas, Caty and Holland Jones, and five sons as well, Abraham Jones who married Nancy Ward in 1798, Isaac Jones who married Elizabeth Thomas in 1794, Robert Jones who married Nancy Thomas in 1808, Hardy Jones who moved to Tennessee around 1815, and Peter Jones who married Mary Carroll of Carrollton in 1813.

Peter Jones inherited the plantation from his father according to Benjamin Jones's 1804 will. Peter Jones died in 1829 and was buried in the family cemetery on the property. His son, Albert Carroll Jones purchased Chippokes Plantation in Surry County in 1837 but continued to live at ROUND OAK for a time thereafter. Albert Carroll Jones married Anne Minge Baskerville of Warren County, North Carolina. Their daughter, Mary Ann Jones was born at ROUND OAK in 1847. Albert Carroll Jones's wife, Anne died in 1850 and was buried at ROUND OAK. Albert Carroll Jones and his widowed mother, Mary Carroll Jones made their home at Chippokes after 1853 and ROUND OAK became the property of a cousin, Rebecca Ann Jones, keeper of the beautiful sunken garden on the plantation, the ruins of which may still be seen.

Utilizing slave labor a section of the yard was dug out and terraced creating a sunken area which was turned into a formal garden of flowers, shrubs and plants. The garden which was a popular site for weddings was cared for by Rebecca Ann Jones who married M. I. Holt after 1850. She died in 1858 and was buried in the sunken garden with this inscription on her tombstone:

"Love my memory and cultivate my flowers,
In all my wanderings round this world of care,
In all my grief, and God has given me my share,
I still had hope my latest hours to crown,
Amidst these humble bowers to lay me down."

After Rebecca's death, her husband sold ROUND OAK to Rev. John Wyatt Ward for $3,000 in 1860. John Wyatt Ward married Lucy Ann Cassandra Jones, great grand daughter of Benjamin Jones who founded the plantation. Mary Carroll Jones was buried here in 1866 beside her husband, Peter Jones and daughter-in-law, Anne Baskerville Jones.

The original house on the plantation burned while the Wards were living here.

2. Site of ABRAHAM JONES HOUSE-Corner of Route 621 (Burwell's Bay Road) and Route 626 (Jones Corner Road)

Built around 1790, this house was the home of Benjamin Jones's oldest son, Abraham Jones (1771 - 1840) and his wife, Nancy Ward. The story and a half house was furnished according to Abraham Jones's will with mahogany and walnut chairs, a dining table, desk and sideboard, fine carpets and window curtains, a bedstead in the chamber, one in the back chamber, another bedstead in the little room, eight bedsteads upstairs, silver, books, and rugs.

Abraham Jones was known as an orchard keeper and much of his estate was in peach and apple brandy and cider. He also owned fishing boats, and a variety of tools used on the plantation, blacksmith's tools, shoemaker's tools. He was known to be a fine carpenter and actually built the house in which he lived as well as houses for several of his children.

The ABRAHAM JONES HOUSE is thought to have been built in several sections beginning with perhaps one room around 1785, with another section added around 1800, and the front completed around 1820. The four large chimneys and English basement are typical of late 18th century homes.

Abraham and Nancy Jones were the parents of 11 children:

1. Anne Jones born 1799 married 1820 Burwell Person.
2. Winnifred Jones (1801-1861) married 1825 Dr. Gray M. Carroll.
3. Benjamin Jones (1803-1856) married Cherry Cofer.
4. Wilson Jones (1806-1847) married 1832 Margaret Delk.
5. Mary Jones (1808-1841) married 1828 Isaac Cofer.
6. Kiturah Jones (1810-1888) married 1832 James HL Cofer.
7. Exum Jones born 1812 died in infancy.
8. Nathan Jones (1814-1883) married 1843 Cassandra Jordan.
9. Marena Jones born 1816 died in infancy.
10. Lanetta Jones born 1818 married 1840 Rev. Reuben Jones, son of Hardy Jones.
11. Isaac Newton Jones born 1820, died as a child.

Abraham Jones left his plantation to his son, Nathan, who sold it to his brother, Wilson Jones, who made it his home after 1840. Wilson died in 1847, and like his father left an extensive inventory which tells much about how the house was furnished and what the plantation was like in his time. His estate included:

A silver watch	Books
24 geese and yard ducks	Window curtains in sitting room
Rag Carpets	2 fine carpets
Brass andirons	Desk
3 looking glasses and a dressing table	Schoolhouse
4 beds	2 pewter dishes
1 blue table	7 brass candlesticks
1 blue pine chest	A coffee pot
Dining Table	1 trundle bed
11 Windsor Chairs
A washstand

Page 2

Wilson also owned 6 slaves, Wiat, Peter, Rachel, Fanny, Mary and her child. His inventory also included $27.00 in cash and $1059.36 in bonds, and $3,515.00 in real estate. Wilson and Margaret Delk Jones were the parents of 8 children:

1. Martha Ann Jones (1832-1833).
2. Sarah Louisa Jones (1833-1900) married Fisher Dashiell.
3. Indianna Wilson Jones born 1837 married B. Frank Gwaltney.
4. Abraham Jones (1839-1897) married 1840 Fannie AE Hunnicutt.
5. Isaac Newton Jones (1840-1900) married 1864 Martha AE Delk.
6. Jacob Jones (1842-1912) married 1882 Annie Poole.
7. Junius Wilson Jones born 1844 married Susanna Jones Atkinson.
8. Josiah Benjamin Jones (1846-1899) married Mary Ellen Whitley.

The ABRAHAM JONES PLANTATION passed out of the Jones family in 1885 when Wilson's widow, Margaret Delk Jones died. The family cemetery is located in the woods behind the house. Although there are a number of graves in it, only those of Abraham's son, Benjamin (1803-1856) and Wilson's son, Abraham (1839-1897) have markers. There is a monument to members of the Dashiell family buried there also.

Abraham Jones and his contemporaries are said to have been buried in an earlier family cemetery in the area between his plantation and that of his brother, Isaac. A probable site has been located but no markers have been found.

3. Site of BURWELL PERSON HOUSE-down Route 626 (Jones Corner Road) on left about 1/2 mile beyond Abraham Jones House.

This house was built by Abraham Jones for his daughter, Anne wife of Burwell Person. Anne died before her father leaving a son, Robert Person. After Burwell Person's death in 1846, the property was sold to Wiley J. Delk brother of Wilson Jones's wife, Margaret. He married Caroline Vellines and their daughter, Charlotte MC Delk married John Gale and the property passed into the Gale family.

4. Site of MIDSYLVANIA-Route 626 (Mill Swamp Road) approx. 1 mile from Abraham Jones house towards Smithfield.

Originally the home of Charles Wrenn, Midsylvania was purchased by Dr. Gray M. Carroll and his wife, Winnifred, Abraham Jones's daughter in 1837. Another of Abraham's daughters, Lanetta lived there while her husband, Reuben Jones was pastor at Mill Swamp Church.

5. Site of PONS-off Route 621 (Mill Swamp Road) on Route 625 (Pons Road) 1st house on right.

The home of Abraham Jones's daughter, Kiturah and her husband, James HL Cofer, this house is thought to have been built by Abraham Jones. James HL Cofer died in 1864 and is buried on the farm. He left the plantation to his surviving children, Andrew J., Nathan P., Carson P., Alonza M., and Alberta K. Cofer.

6. Site of WOLFTRAP-On Route 70B (Ebernezer Church Road) approx.
1 mile from 680 (Foursquare Road).

Abraham Jones gave WOLFTRAP to his son, Benjamin when he married Cherry Cofer in 1824.. The house was added on to several times to produce the unique structure that is now on the Historic Landmark's Register. With its set of double dormer windows, WOLFTRAP is one of the most unique 19th century plantation houses still standing in Virginia.

Benjamin and Cherry Cofer Jones were the parents of 8 children, but only three survived to adulthood. Their son, Berben Jones (1829-1875) was the next owner of the house. He married twice, first to Emma Stringfield (1838-1863) who was herself a descendent of Benjamin Jones, and to Laura Atkinson (1841-1892). Berben Jones's children included:

1. Edwin C. Jones born in 1860 died in infancy.
2. Norvell P. Jones born 1861 married Laura Edwards.
3. Berben Lee Jones born 1865 married Annie M. Whitehead.
4. Willie Young Jones born 1866 married Nannie Bell.
5. Ben Wilson Jones born 1869.
6. Cherry Bettie Jones (1869-1869).
7. Bobbie Young Jones (1870-1870).
8. Isaac Newton Jones born 1872 married Mae Edna Herbert.

The youngest son, Isaac Newton Jones became the next owner of WOLFTRAP. His daughter, Mrs Virginia Jones Lankford makes her home at WOLFTRAP presently. WOLFTRAP is the only early Jones property still in the family after 170 years.

Benjamin Jones, first owner of WOLFTRAP is buried on the Abraham Jones farm. There is a cemetery at WOLFTRAP where several generations of the Benjamin Jones family are buried.

7. Site of ROBERT JONES PLANTATION (HERBERT THACKER FARM)-Route 621
(Burwell's Bay Rd) next house beyond Abraham Jones
house going back towards Route 10.

Isaac Jones, son of Benjamin, and brother of Abraham and Peter Jones made his home here on 200 acres he inherited from his father. Isaac and his wife, Elizabeth Thomas were the parents of 9 children including Peter Ruffin Jones who moved over into Surry County and established a family line that included Benjamin Washington Jones who wrote two books about his adventures in the Civil War, "The Battle Roll of Surry County" and "Under The Stars and Bars." Isaac's youngest son, Robert Thomas Jones (1811-1881) lived here after Isaac's death. He married Lucy Ann Bell in 1834. They were the parents of 7 children, five of whom survived infancy.

1. Roxanna Jones (1835-1906) married Augustus White.
2. Martha B. Jones born 1839 married Algernon Holleman.
3. Lucy AC Jones (1842-1916) married Rev. John Wyatt Ward.
4. Calvin Peter Jones (1845-1862).
5. Robert Crawford Jones (1851-1890) married Nola Warren.

Robert Jones, his wife Lucy, and their son, Robert C. Jones, are buried in the family cemetery on this property. The site of the original Jones family cemetery is in the woods between this farm and the Abraham Jones farm.

8. Site of THE WHITE HOUSE-Off Route 621 (Mill Swamp Rd) behind Mill Swamp Church on Route 625 (White House Road) 1st house on right.

Augustus White and his wife, Roxanna Jones made their home here from just before the Civil War until 1906 when Roxanna Died.

9. Site of THE HOLLEMAN HOUSE-On Route 621 (Mill Swamp Rd) about 1 mi beyond Mill Swamp Church going towards Blackwater River.

Home of Robert Jones's daughter, Martha and her husband, Algernon Holleman.

10. Site of CARROLLTON-Route 621 (Burwell's Bay Rd) about 1 mi beyond intersection with Route 627 (Moonlight Road.)

Gray Carroll (1774-1843) married Constant Jones in 1797. She was the daughter of David Jones who lived along Proctor's Bridge Road on land that had originally belonged to Richard Jones (1666-1721) the first of the family to live in Virginia. Gray and Constant Jones Carroll had 7 children, one of whom was Mary Carroll (1797-1866) who married Peter Jones who lived at Round Oak.

Gray and Constant moved into the story and a half section of CARROLLTON in 1812 and their grandson, Albert Carroll Jones, was born in the house in 1815. Constant Jones Carroll died around 1816 and Gray Carroll married three more times before his death in 1843.

By the time their grandson, George Washington Carroll inherited the plantation in 1849, it consisted of a 2,000 acre farming operation, a general store, and a major shipping business from the Stone Wharf on Burwell's Bay. George Washington Carroll added the three story section to the existing house. He married his cousin, Mary F. Wrenn, in 1849. He died in 1862 and left the plantation to his children, Thomas Hardy Carroll, Archibald Carroll, Everallin, and Agnes Hardy Carroll.

The plantation was known for its extensive gardens and spacious rooms. Old timers still talk about the early days of the victrola when parties were held there and the scandalous Blackbottom and Charleston were performed in the parlor.

George Washington Carroll's heirs sold Carrollton and it became the property of another Jones descendent, Dr. William Ward, son of John Wyatt and Lucy AC Jones Ward. He and his wife, Adele Bagwell made their home at Carrollton until 1917. While they were living there, their daughter, Dorothy Ward, was drowned in an auto accident at Reid's Ferry. Their surviving children included two sons, Donald and William, and a daughter, Rose Ward Johnson.

11. Site of HISTORIC FORT BOYKIN-Off Route 673 (Mogart's Beach Rd)

Although this fortress on a bluff overlooking the James dates back to colonial times, it was refurbished during the Civil War and utilized as a troop training facility as well as an outpost from which to guard the shore line from the Yankees at Fort Monroe across the river. The James River Artillery was located here from July of 1861 until April of 1862. Numbered among the troops were several Jones family members/relations:

1. Alexander D. Callicotte, a graduate of VMI, he was the first Captain of the James River Artillery. He was married to Mary Eliza Cofer, grand daughter of Abraham Jones. He was killed at Gettysburg July 3, 1863.
2. James Thomas Gwaltney, promoted to Captain after Alexander Callicotte was transferred to the Regimental Staff, he was the son of Margaret Delk Jones's sister. He was killed at Frayser's Farm in June of 1862.
3. Benjamin LW Gwaltney, younger brother of James Thomas Gwaltney, he was captured at Gettysburg and died at Point Lookout.
4. Augustus W. Stringfield (1841-1862) grandson of Rebekah Jones, Abraham's sister, he was promoted to Captain of the unit after J.T. Gwaltney was killed. He died of disease in a Richmond hospital in 1862.
5. Chapman Stringfield (1844-1863) brother of Augustus Stringfield, he was captured April 1, 1865, and died at Point Lookout Federal Prisoner of War Camp.
6. Owington G. Delk, final commanding officer of the James River Artillery, he was the son of Margaret Delk Jones's brother Josiah DM Delk.
7. Walter Wrenn (1836-1862) grandson of Gray and Constant Jones Carroll, he was a first lieutenant of the unit as well as serving on General Pryor's staff. He was killed at the Second Battle of Bull Run.
8. Fenton Elay Wrenn (1839-1863) younger brother of Walter Wrenn, he was killed at Gettysburg.
9. Virginius Wrenn, the third Wrenn brother of Shoal Bay was captured several times but was the only one of the three to return from the war.
10. Abraham Jones (1839-1897) oldest son of Wilson and Margaret Delk Jones, he was wounded and captured at Gettysburg July 3, 1863. He was exchanged at City Point in September, and after spending a month in Chimborazo Hospital, he returned to his unit and was present at the surrender at Appomattox.
11. Isaac Newton Jones (1840-1900) second son of Wilson and Margaret Delk Jones, First Lieutenant, captured April 6, 1865, and sent to Johnson's Island, Ohio, released June 17, 1865.
12. Jacob Jones (1852-1912) third son of Wilson and Margaret Delk Jones, Second Lieutenant, captured April 1, 1865, and sent to Johnson's Island, released June 18, 1865.

13. Junius Wilson Jones (1844-before 1903) fourth son of Wilson Jones. enlisted April 1, 1863, captured April 6, 1865, and sent to Point Lookout. released June 4, 1865.

14. Josiah Benjamin Jones (1846-1899) youngest of the Jones brothers. enlisted April 1, 1864, wounded and captured in the final days of the war in April of 1865.

15. William H. Jones (1827-before 1903) great great grandson of Reverend Richard Jones, served in James River Artillery.

16. Rev. John Wyatt Ward (1827-1905) served as Chaplain to Company 1862-1865, married Lucy Ann Cassandra Jones, daughter of Robert and Lucy Bell Jones.

17. Benjamin Hardy Delk (1839-after 1908) brother of Martha AE Delk, wife of Isaac Newton Jones and great great grandson of Solomon and Martha Jones Delk.

CHIPPOKES

The oldest working plantation in Virginia, Chippokes was patented in 1635 by Stephen Webb. It was escheated by Governor Sir William Berkley, and through his widow, Frances's marriage passed into the Ludwell family becoming the property of Lucy Ludwell Paradise.

Albert Carroll Jones, son of Peter and Mary Carroll Jones purchased the plantation in 1837. Like his uncle, Abraham Jones, Albert was an orchard keeper. He built up a substantial shipping business, comprised mainly of brandy and cider made from apples and peaches grown on the plantation. He married Anne Minge Baskerville (1826-1850) of Warren County, North Carolina in 1844. They were the parents of 3 children, only one of which survived infancy, a daughter, Mary Anne born in 1847. They were living at Round Oak when Mary Anne was born according to information on her tombstone at the Old Brick Church, but had settled in at the River House at Chippokes by 1850 when Anne Baskerville Jones death was reported in the Southern Argus.

The Italian inspired mansion house was finished in 1853. Its magnificent white front could be seen up and down the River, and became a navigation landmark for ships on the river. A spacious and well proportioned hall ran from the river front of the house to the road front with four rooms off the hall on each floor. The ornate designs in the plaster are unique. Albert Jones purchased the molds and had them broken to be sure no other house would ever have exactly the same designs.

Although fired on by Union gunboats, Chippokes survived the Civil War as did the Jones family. Albert's mother, who had been the mistress of Chippokes died in 1866. In 1871, Mary Anne Jones married Charles Sutton, the sheriff of Surry County. A former artillery man, Charles Sutton had been wounded at Seven Pines. He was elected sheriff of Surry County in 1868 and held the office until 1872. After his daughter's marriage, Albert Jones married in 1872, Roberta Parke Baskerville, sister of his former wife. He was 57 at the time of the marriage and she was 40.

Charles and Mary Anne Jones Sutton were the parents of 3 children, Anne Baskerville Sutton born July 5, 1872, Henry Tyler Sutton born July 22, 1873 and Roberta Parker Sutton born December 9, 1878. Both of the daughters died as children. Charles Sutton died August 13, 1881, while vacationing at Warm Springs, Virginia.

Albert Carroll Jones died on July 22, 1882, at Chippokes and was buried in the old brick churchyard at Bacon's Castle. Mary Anne Sutton, his only heir, died in 1901 and left Chippokes to her son, Henry Tyler Sutton. He died unmarried at the age of 37 in 1910 and left the plantation to Roberta Parke Baskerville Jones who had returned to North Carolina after Albert's death. It was sold as a part of her estate in 1918 and passed out of the Jones family.

Like his cousin, Rebecca Ann Jones Holt, Albert Carroll Jones has this epitaph:

Love my memory and cultivate my flowers,
In all my wanderings round this world of care,
In all my grief and God has given me my share,
I still had hope my latest hours to crown,
Amidst these humble bowers to lay me down.

A church of more than ordinary interest in this County, it being the mother of the churches of the Baptist denomination in this section, "Mill Swamp".

In January 1727, Caspar Mintz and Richard Jones came over from England and settled near the church and the latter was its Pastor for over thirty years.

Morrison's History of Isle of Wight County,
